

A close-up photograph of several golden wheat stalks with long, thin awns, set against a bright, slightly hazy blue sky. The wheat is in sharp focus in the foreground, while the background is softly blurred.

Harvest at Fir Tree

Cherry

Cherry investigated the festival of Harvest and explored what it means to different individuals. Cherry also asked themselves what Harvest means to them.

BY EVIE AND LISA HARVEST

IN THE PAST, IT WAS NOT AS EASY TO FIND FOOD IN THE WINTER. IT WAS IMPORTANT THAT FARMERS BROUGHT THE HARVEST IN BEFORE THE COLD WINTER CAME SO THAT THERE WAS ENOUGH FOOD UNTIL THE SPRING.

THE WORD DERIVED FROM THE ANGLO - SAXON HAERFEST ("AUTUMN") OR THE OLD HIGH GERMAN HERBIST.

THE FIRST HARVEST WAS CELEBRATED IN THE PAGON TIMES.

HAPPY HARVEST!

These are harvest donations for the people who are less fortunate than us.

This is the grain we use to make bread and cake 🍰!

Harvest

Harvest is for giving to others and thanking the farmers and god for the food we eat.

The combine harvester chops down crops for them to be made into bread 🍞.

This is a community food bank for those who can't afford their own food.

Harvest is a celebration in multiple religious calendars including Christianity and Jews.

Harvest dates back to when it was first celebrated in Pangea times.

We need to thank farmers for all their hard work to put food on our table.

PIC•COLLAGE

Year 4 Maple Class

“Harvest festival means planting seeds and sharing food with more people” – Zeph

“Harvest festival means being kind and sharing” – Freddie

“It means helping others when we harvest our crops” – Tom

“We can help homeless people survive by giving them food” – Oliver

“Harvest festival means sharing nice food with family and friends” – Alba

“Harvest festival means you help people in need” – Phoebe

“It means donating to others” – Amy

“Harvest festival means helping lots of people” – Seb

What does Harvest mean to us?

Harvest means celebrating crops, farmers and giving food to those in need.

Harvest means thanking God for the land we grow our crops on.

Harvest means thanking our farmers for caring for our community.

Harvest reminds us to be thankful for the food we have.

